~ NEW APOSTOLIC REFORMATION ~

Is it a cult?

What is a cult?

Walter Martin described a cult like this: "as a group of people gathered about a specific persons interpretation of the bible... from a theological view point, the cults contain not only a few major deviations from historic Christianity. They paradoxically, continue to insist that they are entitled to be classified as Christians." (Kingdom of the cults p.11)

Core Characteristics of a Cult

They Deify Man

They Humanize

They Minimize and Eliminate Sin

They Minimize the Importance of the Bible

They Have a Different Way of Salvation

“Though He was God, Jesus walked as a man filled with the Spirit of God, having emptied Himself of His divine powers in order to fulfil the Father's will of redemption. Because He walked this earth in utter dependence on the Holy Spirit (see John 5:30), He can now ask us to do the same in order to manifest the glory of God through our lives.

We can't look at Jesus' victorious life and object, "Yes, but He was God." As a complete man, Jesus taught us by example that the source of victory—the source of His glory in us—is being filled with, empowered by, and obedient to the Holy Spirit.”

Kenosis

Imitate God, therefore, in everything you do, because you are his dear children. Live a life filled with love, following the example of Christ. He loved us and offered himself as a sacrifice for us, a pleasing aroma to God.

Ephesians 5:1-2 NLT

Jesus provided us with the perfect example of how we are to live our lives. He is our model, the one we are to follow.

The biblical word kenosis describes what Jesus did. It is derived from the Greek word for “emptiness” and describes the self-emptying of one’s own will to become entirely receptive to God’s divine will.

Paul writes of Jesus that, “He gave up His divine privileges; he took the humble position of a slave and was born as a human being. When he appeared in human form, he humbled himself in obedience to God and died a criminal’s death on a cross” (Philippians 2:7-8 NLT).

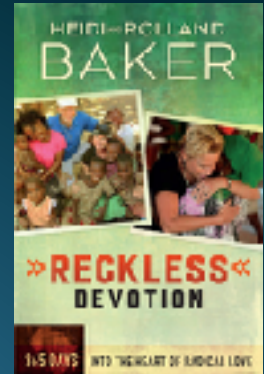

Then Paul echoed this in his own life, as he states a few verses later: “But I will rejoice even if I lose my life, pouring it out like a liquid offering to God, just as your faithful service is an offering to God. And I want all of you to share that joy” (verse 17 NLT).

Jesus emptied Himself and became nothing so He would be totally dependent on Holy Spirit, totally reliant on listening to His Father’s instructions. Why did He do that? So you could follow Him.

He didn’t have to do it. He could have accomplished His mission another way. He could have shown up in gold robes and said, “Listen to Me! Do what I say!” But instead He chose to come as a baby, live among the poor, learn languages.

He did it for the sake of love, so we could imitate Him. So we too could walk in faith, pray for the sick in His glorious name and see them get up and run. So we could pray over a lunch and see it feed a multitude.

What kind of people does God fill? Empty ones.

“If we as Christians desire to do the work of God, then this desire has been placed within us by the Holy Spirit. Yet, as a divine person, we must learn to come into a personal relationship with Him. We just cannot depend upon our theological knowledge of God. We must learn to know Him. As we grow in our consciousness of the Holy Spirit, we develop a fellowship (koinonia) with Him. [...]

1. Know that God's Will is to Heal You
Practically everyone recognizes the fact of God's healing power. Mental acceptance is not enough. We must have personal, active faith in God for our own healing.

It is my sincere belief that Christ's death on the cross includes all people everywhere and in all generations. The apostle Peter writes of Jesus, "Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness, by whose stripes we were healed." (1 Peter 2:24).

The prophet Isaiah had known that Christ would be the Savior and healer over seven hundred years before the crucifixion. Said he, "But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed" (Isaiah 53:5).

Both Isaiah and Peter declare that there is healing in His stripes. Someone recently pointed out to me that in Pilate's Hall of Judgment the Roman scourger of Jesus as long as there is sin in the person's life. Sin is a dominating thing and it produces a division in the soul. Faith lies dormant under me, and I say to this man, go, and he goeth; and to another, come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this and he doeth it." (Matthew 8:2-13).

Remember that the woman with the issue of blood also used a point of contact which helped her set the time for healing. She said, "If I may touch but His clothes I shall be whole." There was no healing in His clothes, but touching the clothes helped her release her faith and her faith made her whole. That's why God gives us a point of contact. The book of Acts tells how that handkerchiefs or aprons were sent from the body of the apostle Paul to the sick and demon-possessed and how that through these little faith-litha deliverance was wrought. These cloths became points of contact and when placed upon the body of the sick and afflicted, the captives turned their faith loose and were set free. I, too, have been impressed and directed of the Lord to carry on the ministry of healing through cloths so that we are sending out over 16,000 a month.

GOSPEL – Of Power aka. Gospel Of The Kingdom

It is my sincere belief that Christ's death on the cross includes all people everywhere and in all generations. The apostle Peter writes of Jesus, "Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness, by whose stripes ye were healed." (1 Peter 2:24).

The prophet Isaiah had known that Christ would be the Savior and healer over seven hundred years before the crucifixion. Said he, "But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed" (Isaiah 53:5).

Both Isaiah and Peter declare that there is healing in His stripes. Someone recently pointed out to me that in Pilate's Hall of Judgment the Roman scourger of Jesus inflicted thirty-eight stripes on His back. Also the medical world says there are thirty-eight major diseases. If this is true then for every disease there is a healing stripe on the flesh of Jesus' back.

1. Know that God's Will Is to Heal You
2. Remember that Healing Begins Within
3. Use a Point of Contact for the Release of Your Faith.
4. Turn your faith loose now!
5. Close the case for victory.
6. Join yourself to companions of faith.

I have asked myself this question: What if I had been a member of a church whose minister and people were unfriendly toward healing and to people who had been healed? What would I have done in a moment of weakness and despondency if these people failed to encourage me or if they ridiculed me? How can I who have been healed by a miracle receive help from a church that denies the possibility and reality of the miracle of healing wrought in me by faith in God? How would I feel if the minister ridiculed the people who had prayed the "prayer of faith" for my healing?

There is only one answer to this problem: those receiving deliverance by faith in God should, by all means, join themselves with the church that believes in Bible deliverance and that will provide for them an atmosphere of faith and hope.

THE WORD OF HEALING

April-May 1991

THE PARALLS BETWEEN SALVATION AND HEALING

It is in the recognition of what healing is that we find the answer to a question that has troubled many of us in the past. The Bible teaches us that healing is not just a physical process, but a spiritual one. It is the work of the Holy Spirit, who is the source of all life and power. The Bible also teaches us that healing is not just a physical process, but a spiritual one. It is the work of the Holy Spirit, who is the source of all life and power.

...and so we need to know that it is a process of being brought into a new relationship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is a process of being brought into a new relationship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is a process of being brought into a new relationship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

A PRELIMINARY WORD OF THE SPIRIT NECESSARY TO HEALING

The word is that every Christian who is truly seeking healing must first be brought into a new relationship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is a process of being brought into a new relationship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is a process of being brought into a new relationship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

MY MOST IMPORTANT MESSAGE ON DIVINE HEALING

By Gordon Lindsay

Perhaps the most prevalent error made by people seeking healing is that they are not in the right relationship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is a process of being brought into a new relationship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is a process of being brought into a new relationship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

...and so we need to know that it is a process of being brought into a new relationship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is a process of being brought into a new relationship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is a process of being brought into a new relationship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

THE THRESHOLD WORK OF CHRIST

This is the first step in the process of healing. It is a process of being brought into a new relationship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is a process of being brought into a new relationship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is a process of being brought into a new relationship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

THE THRESHOLD WORK OF HEALING

This is the second step in the process of healing. It is a process of being brought into a new relationship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is a process of being brought into a new relationship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is a process of being brought into a new relationship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

TWO FATEFUL ERRORS

We are now in a position to note two fateful errors that the Church makes in the matter of Divine Healing. First: Although it is generally accepted that a God-anointed teaching of the Word is required before ordinarily a true work of conversion may take place, often the same persons will not concede the Spirit of God the same opportunity in the matter of healing. Too often they will encourage the sick person to be prayed for without teaching and may resent it if the minister advises the sick person first to prepare his heart. Second, although they will encourage a penitent sinner, to believe in the FINISHED WORK of salvation, some with fine inconsistency will reproach those who deal the same way in securing the healing of the sick. Some mischievously will point to some sick person who was supposed to have thought he was healed and who is still sick. This is criminal unbelief. It is similar to the act of one who would discourage a sinner from getting saved, by pointing to some backslider, who once thought he was saved but is now backslidden. Let God be true and every man a liar! According to God's Word they were saved if they truly believed. So the sick person is healed if he believes. Both salvation and healing are a Finished Work of Calvary.

THE INTERRUPTED MIRACLE

Of course, if the new convert allows doubts to take refuge in his heart, the work of salvation becomes a miscarriage. The sick person who has received healing, may likewise lose it if he allows doubts to secure a foothold in his heart. Did not Peter walk on the water? Yes, and it was truly a miracle. But the miracle miscarried when a doubt crept into his heart—which, we may add, was caused by Peter looking at the waves instead of Christ. Healing is a Finished Work, as far as God is concerned. But we have to appropriate it, and not allow the enemy to challenge our right to it. Peter declares,

"by whose stripes ye were healed." (Read also Isa. 53 and Matt. 8:14-17). We do not pray healing down from heaven or persuade God to do what was fulfilled at Calvary. What we do is to appropriate healing in identically the same way that the sinner appropriates salvation.

aka. Gospel Of The Kingdom

“The simplest way to understand the distinction between the two kingdoms is to recognize that the gospel of salvation deals only with the salvation of your soul. The gospel of the kingdom deals with all things the cross affected, including not only salvation but also the reconciliation of all things—including the material world that was lost in the fall.”

GOSPEL – Of Power aka. Gospel Of The Kingdom

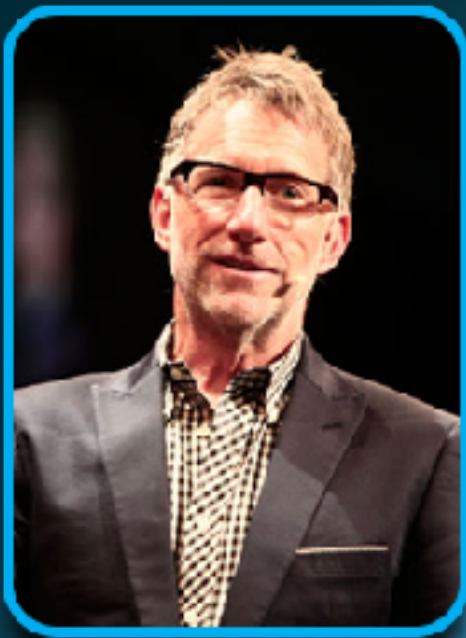

“Jesus became poor regarding the wealth of this world on the cross, that those who receive Him may become rich with the wealth of this world.”

“Here is a person who raised the dead, healed the sick, displayed complete prowess over demons and the devil, revealed truths regarding God, man and the entire purpose of God that have withstood every kind of test and scrutiny. This person was not a spiritually poor person. Rather it was because of His spiritual wealth that he was able to go to the cross and bear away the curses that afflict mankind. [...] Jesus became poor regarding the wealth of this world on the cross, that those who receive Him may become rich with the wealth of this world.”

GOSPEL – Of Power
aka. Gospel Of The Kingdom

“1 Peter 2:24-25 – “..by whose stripes you were healed.”

“Were healed” – past tense. No matter what the illness was, it has been healed, whether physical, emotional, mental. There’s always a difference between facts and truth!

Appropriating truth is a fight, just like Joshua possessing Canaan. God said, “I have given you the land’ before they have even set foot there!

Appropriating truth into our lives is a fight against giants who try to oppose us possessing what is ours in Christ!

We appropriate truth (like ‘we are’ healed) with our mouth wielding the sword of the Spirit – the ‘Word of God!
SPEAK TRUTH TODAY, INSTEAD OF JUST THE FACTS!”

“One of the problems in the church today is that we often talk about “escaping this evil world” through the rapture instead of influencing the world. Some research tells us that as much as 60 percent of the population of the country of Nigeria may be born again. Yet the culture has some of the greatest problems with crime and corruption of any nation in the world. That is because the gospel of salvation has been the primary message.”

RECOGNISING THE NEW APOSTOLIC REFORMATION (NAR) – IS IT A CULT?

“The following comparison between attributes of the gospel of the kingdom and the gospel of salvation provides a better understanding of the two. When Jesus prayed the Lord’s Prayer, He prayed for the manifestation of what was happening in heaven to happen on earth: “Our Father in heaven, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come. Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.” His emphasis was more than salvation.”

| Gospel of Salvation                    | Gospel of the Kingdom   |
|--|---|
| Focus: Evangelism/salvation            | Focus: Taking dominion  |
| Eternal, heavenly focus                | Material, social, earthly, secular                                  |
| Addresses only the soul                | Addresses soul and body   |
| “Rapture escape” mentality             | “Possess the land” mentality  |
| Sacred vs. secular—dualism             | Impacts all aspects of society                                      |
| Goal: Transaction, “win the next soul” | Goal: Influence through servanthood, godly leadership, active faith |
| Example: Nigeria                       | Example: Almolonga, Guatemala                                       |

This diagram shows the contrast between the gospel of salvation and the gospel of the kingdom. One is passive; the other is active, with a goal of taking possession, as Joshua was instructed.”
